

The Spanish Barb Horse Association Presents

Discover The Horse That Discovered America

9:00	Gates open to the public
9:30	Arena - Introductions – SBHA President Steve Dobrott & Amerind Executive Director, John Ware
10:00 - 4:00	Amerind Museum, Art Gallery and Gift Shop are open Visit the And Then, There Were Horses! exhibit in the Art Gallery.
10:00	Arena - Conformation of the Colonial Spanish Horse by Jane Dobrott
10:00	Amerind Library - Talk on the Arizona Spanish Barb by author Silke Schneider – limited seating.
10:30 - 3:30	Amerind Museum - Video of interview with Eva Wilbur-Cruce in the Amerind Museum (runs continuously)
11:00	Arena - Apache Historian Dale Curtis Miles, Levi Miles and Sylvia Thompson will discuss the role of the Barb in Native American culture
11:30 - 12:15	Food area – Flute music by Linda Dougherty
11:30	Arena – Roping demo by Alfredo Mendivil on Miranda a Spanish Barb
11:45	Amerind Library - Talk on the Arizona Spanish Barb by author Silke Schneider – limited seating
12:30 - 1:15	Food area – Flute music by Linda Dougherty
12:30	Arena - Dressage riding demo with Lorenzo a Spanish Barb
1:00	Amerind Library -Talk on Wilbur-Cruce horses by SBHA President, Steve Dobrott & Jane Dobrott.
1:00	Amerind Museum Lobby - Book signing by author, Silke Schneider
1:30	Arena - Jumping demo with Leo a Champion Spanish Barb
2:00	Amerind Library - Talk on the Arizona Spanish Barb by author Silke Schneider – limited seating
2:30	Arena - Ground work SBHA's President Steve Dobrott.
3:00	Amerind Museum Lobby - Book signing by author, Silke Schneider
3:30	Amerind - Announcements on the Silent Auction Items
4:00	Amerind & Event closes

Times are approximate and are subject to change
Raffles at the beginning of each horse demo at the arena